Resolution adopted by the Board of Managers of the Presbyterian Hospital at their regular meeting held Monday, May 17, 1909:

"The Board of Managers of the Presbyterian Hospital records with profound regret and deep sorrow the lamented death of the late Nelson B. Holden, who passed to his reward on the 20th day of March last. Mr. Holden was born in Jackson, Washington County, N. Y., March 20, 1841. During the war he served in the United States Cavalry. In 1868 he came to Chicago, where he remained in business until the time of his death. Mr. Holden was a faithful member of the Third Presbyterian Church for many years. In the year 1904 he was elected to the Board of Managers of our Hospital, and was active on the House and Building Committees connected with the same. His devotion to the Hospital was shown in his generous bequests to it. His life was marked by fidelity to duty, modest and unassuming demeanor, ever thoughtful for the comforts of his fellow men, and diligent in his efforts to advance the Kingdom of God. His name will long be cherished by those who were his associates."

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL

To the Members of the Society, the churches affiliated with it, and the public:

The past year has been a difficult one in the administration of the Hospital. Much interest naturally centered in the completion of our new buildings, the Private Pavilion and power house. Patients were admitted to the former November 4, 1907. Opening but one floor at first, the demand for the class of service which we furnished increased steadily, and at present we have three floors in full operation. As far as the benefit to the sick is concerned, it has proved fully equal to our hopes, and we have been very much encouraged by the grateful appreciation of many patients and their friends, who have been cared for in it. It represents to-day the highest perfection of building and facilities for the care of private patients, so far attained, with every known successful modern appliance for the care and relief of the sick.

In my last report attention was called to the necessity for increased accommodation for nurses in our Training School Home. Not having the money to erect a building for this purpose, we were obliged to use the fifth floor of the Pavilion for our head nurses, which reduced our available rooms by fifteen. This can only be a temporary makeshift. It is not advantageous for the school; it is an increased expense, and it reduces our capacity for Private Patients materially. There is every indication that the demand for the service which we are giving in the Pavilion will steadily increase, and we must be in position to respond to it as it grows.

When this Pavilion is fully in use, it will be a source of considerable income, and materially increase our funds for charity work.

Our necessities demand that we shall have the necessary increased accommodation for our nurses at the Home, and the full use of our Private Pavilion for the purposes for which it was intended.

In our new Power Plant we are steadily obtaining higher efficiency, at reduced expense.

In common with all other hospitals in the country, we have suffered from the financial depression of 1907, the effect of which was noticeable that year, and continued with but little diminution through the following year. The receipts from pay patients in wards were largely diminished.

The high prices for all Hospital supplies prevailed throughout the year and showed a decided increase over 1907. The standard of service and comfort is steadily advancing and the cost advances with it. Modern requirements for diet add yearly to the cost of carrying on a hospital. For the first time in four years, there has been a deficit in running expenses, which, however, was taken care of without asking outside assistance.

Our cost per capita shows a large increase, but when it is remembered that every item of expense is included, and that 25 per cent of our patients were in private rooms, and recalling facts already mentioned regarding expense, the increase is accounted for. In addition, our building operations during the early part of the year interfered somewhat with our service, and reduced the number of our patients.

But, if the financial result is not as satisfactory as desired or hoped for, we have the great satisfaction of knowing that we have cared for more people than ever before, and that our charity work has been greatly increased over any previous year in our history.

The total cost of our charity work at regular rates was $79,469.79. The income from our endowment fund was $18,697.14; from all donations of every kind, $22,8234.90; or a total of $41,532.04.

It is worthy of notice that every dollar given us during the year, including the income from our endowment fund, was expended in charity work.

The year's offering through collections from Presbyterian Churches was $5,822. Is it not proper for us to appeal for a more generous support from the churches for this, the most prominent institution of this city and the West, that bears the name of Presbyterian? If we could only engage their active, hearty interest, and if they would realize the great opportunity that is in their hands, and the importance of the work that is being done in their name, both from a humanitarian and educational point of view, then the Presbyterian Hospital would assume the position in our city that it is entitled to, and is intended to fill. We plead earnestly for their co-operation.

The public and our friends have been very generous to us the past year, and we gratefully acknowledge their assistance. And we assure them that it is and has been the constant effort of the Board of Managers to administer the funds entrusted to it in the most careful manner.

The standard of nursing and of general service in the hospital has been maintained and shows improvement from year to year.

The use of our roof pavilion has proven of benefit to many patients, and has become a very important part of our service.

Our Hydro-Therapeutic room has been steadily coming into use, and now occupies a well-defined place in the work of the hospital.

Nurses and internes have performed their duties in a capable and efficient manner and with constantly higher ideals of the privileges of their profession.

The hearty co-operation of all employes of the Hospital in all efforts for good service merits grateful recognition.

In my report of last year the necessity for the erection of our power plant was explained and the opinion expressed that the debt thereon could not exceed $60,000. There are still some unsettled accounts due to unfinished work, but it is safe to state that the debt will be less than the sum named and that both buildings will be erected and furnished within our lowest estimates.

In my address at the dedication of the new Pavilion, the plans of the Board of Managers were explained. These comprised an addition to the Training School Home, and a new building to take the place of the present Ross-Hamill Wing. To erect these buildings and cancel our debt on the Power House, not less than $275,000 would be required. The addition to the Home is an immediate, imperative necessity. The other is equally desirable to the end that the Hospital shall be properly equipped to give the highest grade of service.

Few people, outside of those intimately connected with it, realize the importance of the Presbyterian Hospital, from an educational point of view. In his address at the dedication of the new Pavilion, Dr. Frank Billings emphasized this work as it applied to the education of nurses, internes and physicians; adding, "This training, subsequent to the full medical course, furnishes young physicians of ability, training and experience, of extraordinary value to the immediate community, to the state, and to the country." "The Presbyterian Hospital, therefore, is not only an educational institution, and helpful to those immediately in contact with it, but through the physicians and nurses who go from her doors, the good work for humanity is extended and as broad as the world." "The Presbyterian Hospital has become in a sense a University Hospital, from an educational point of view.

This affords better advantages for its patients, for the medical staff, for the internes, for the nurses and students, than ever before, and better indeed than that of almost any other institution in the country."

This is the statement of one thoroughly acquainted with all the facts, and competent to pass an opinion.

Is not this institution entitled to your support?

Will you not make a personal visit to it and satisfy yourself that it is really doing what we claim for it?

And if that is your conclusion, will you not help as your ability will permit?

On the eve of a returning era of national and local prosperity, this Hospital appeals to its old friends to increase their donations, and to all who are desirous of furthering educational and humanitarian progress to remember its present and future value, and to take a part in this service to their fellow men.

To the churches whose name this Hospital bears, and to whom it must stand as the embodiment and fulfillment of the Samaritan spirit, it appeals, with the hope that they may realize that there is no more pressing claim on their resources and their active interest.

No gifts outside of the annual donations are used for the support of the Hospital. Its annual expenditures are kept within its income, and it has no debt beyond the $50,000 on the Power House, as previously explained.

CHICAGO, April 1, 1909.

To the Board of Managers of the Presbyterian Hospital:

During the year we admitted 3,617 patients, which is an increase of 365 over the previous year. Of those admitted 31 per cent were entirely free, 50 per cent paid only a part of their cost for keeping, while 19 per cent were full pay.

From those discharged during the year, 50 per cent were cured, 28 per cent improved, 4 per cent unimproved, 8 per cent for diagnosis, 5 per cent were attendants and 5 per cent died.

You will see by the comparative statement that there is a large increase in this year's work in the various departments.

THE SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

School for Nurses

OF

THE PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL

Mr. President and Members of the Board of Managers:

The year ending April 1, 1909, the sixth in the history of the school, has not been an eventful one. The policy in management and general plan of instruction has remained unchanged.

With the assistance which the Rush Medical College has, from the first, given to the school the students enrolled have had the advantage of a most excellent course of theoretical instruction. This, with the supervision of the carefully selected graduate nurse staff, under whose teaching and guidance our pupils are daily, cannot fail to provide training and discipline of the highest order for the student nurse.

A large number of young women has taken advantage of the course offered, the average number of pupils during the year being 106. Of these eighty-three have been engaged in general or special duty in this hospital, in the contagious department of the Cook County Hospital, or at the Elgin Insane Asylum, and twenty-three in the preliminary department of the school. Added to this, sixteen graduate nurses or domestic science graduates, holding positions of responsibility as teachers, supervisors and head nurses, makes an average total of 122.

With the enlarged capacity and work of the hospital it has been found necessary to greatly increase the nursing staff, with the result that it has been impossible to accommodate all of its members in the Home, and one floor of the new private pavilion has been reserved to be used by the head nurses of the Hospital. Even with this additional accommodation a number of bed-rooms in the Home are still overcrowded, while the kitchen, store-rooms and dining room have been outgrown for some time.

Naturally, comparison is made from time to time of this school and its results with that of other schools for nurses throughout the country. Such comparison is helpful, but, if just and intelligent conclusions be arrived at, must take into consideration differences, as well as similarities, in organization and methods.

This school has the eight-hour day for its pupils, with also the customary half-day weekly and on Sundays; there is a preliminary department of six months, during which time the student nurse does no actual nursing work; the connection of the institution with the Rush Medical College and the Central Free Dispensary brings an incentive to the school and is of indispensable educational value, but adds to its work to a marked degree; all classes and lectures being held in the day time, optional courses allowed in other institutions, the formation of only two classes yearly, and even the fact that the home to which nurses go for three meals daily is at a considerable distance from the Hospital, all help to make it necessary to have enrolled a very large number of students, in order to meet successfully the demands of the Hospital and to carry out, in reality, the organization of the school as planned six years ago.

The annual commencement exercises were held in June, in the Home, with the usual simple program and subsequent reception.

The Albert M. Day prizes were awarded to:

Miss Sylvia Chenoweth of the Graduating Class.

Miss Martha Avery and Miss Jeanette Fletcher, Senior Class.

Miss Alice Morse and Miss Ellen Moore, Junior Class.

Miss Estelle Fountain, First Year.

Sixteen nurses were granted diplomas, bringing our list of graduates to forty-two. Of these thirty-four are actively engaged in nursing, eleven of them in institutional work, twenty-one private duty nurses, one district nurse in Marquette, Michigan, and one missionary nurse under the Presbyterian Board of Missions, in Latakia, Syria.

The graduates of the school, assisted by the under-graduates, have started a Mary Byrne Memorial Fund, the aim being to endow a room in the Hospital in memory of the only nurse in the school who has died since its establishment.

The registry has responded to 142 calls for graduate nurse service outside the Hospital, the demand, as usual, being in excess of the supply. Six thousand six hundred and ninety-seven days of special nursing has been accomplished in the Hospital by graduate nurses, and 1,135 by pupils, the latter being an increase of 532 days over last year. Six hundred and eighteen calls have been made in connection with the outside obstetrical service, the nurse visiting and caring for the mother and child daily for ten days after birth. As many of the homes are at a distance from the Hospital, each call is apt to represent several hours of the nurse's time.

Several changes have occurred in the staff. Miss Gertrude Thompson and Miss Myra Jones, assistants to the superintendent, resigned in June to be married, their work being carried on by Miss Eva L. Denne and by Miss Minerva Wilson, one of our own graduates. Miss Mabel Adams and Miss Helen Wapshott, the former a head nurse in the Hospital for five years and the latter for three, left us to accept larger opportunities in other institutions. Miss Blanchard, the night superintendent, being called suddenly to Panama, Miss Gertrude McKee was promoted to the vacancy. Several of our own graduates have been given vacancies occurring on the staff or have received appointments in the new pavilion.

There has been the usual amount of illness among the nurses, much of it of a minor nature. We take this opportunity of thanking the physicians to the School, Dr. Herrick and Dr. Irons, and also other members of the staff of the Hospital and of the Central Free Dispensary for their kind attendance at such times.

We also return grateful thanks to all kind friends of the school and to those who have in any way shown interest in its students and their work.

The loss by death of three most active and interested friends of the school has been much felt: Mrs. Charles D. Hamill, who, from the time of its organization, assisted in all matters which affected its welfare and who has left upon its work the impress of her personality; Mrs. Joseph Matteson, a most interested member of the School Committee, and Mr. N. B. Holden, who was working and planning for the future needs of the school when illness prevented the continuation of his efforts.

Respectfully submitted,

M. H. McMILLAN,

Superintendent of Nurses and Principal of the School.

REPORT OF LIBRARY COMMITTEE

Madam President and Ladies:

At the meeting held in October, 1908, Mrs. F. B. Carter, Chairman of the Library Committee, presented her resignation, which the Board felt unwilling to accept, granting her instead a year's leave of absence, and appointing Mrs. G. P. Marquis Chairman pro tem.

Mrs. Marquis resigned in March, 1909, Mrs. John M. Dodson being appointed in her place.

Nine meetings of the Library Committee have been held during the past year, the largest attendance at any one meeting being seven. Seven hundred books have been covered and the book cases refilled with these and fresh magazines each month. We have received 108 books and a large number of magazines.

On March 11th two members of the committee, with the valuable assistance of Miss Mills, spent a day looking over the books and magazines which had accumulated, and a large barrel of worn-out, useless material was disposed of by Mr. Wayson, who sold it and turned over to your chairman one dollar ($1.00).

The opening of the new pavilion makes new demands on our library and it has been suggested that the question of rearranging the library be considered by the Board. This consideration should have reference to the needs of the patients and to the amount and character of reading matter desirable. If to our present collection there should be added each month a few new books and magazines, it would increase the usefulness of the library and make it more in keeping with the high standards of the Presbyterian Hospital.

We wish to express our thanks for the generous donations of books and magazines during this past year and for the annual gift of fifteen dollars ($15.00) from the Ladies' Aid Society.

I wish especially to thank the Silver Cross Circle of the Eighth Presbyterian Church for the magazines which they prepared by removing the advertising matter and enclosing the stories in neat covers, easily handled by the patients, and also to acknowledge twenty-four Bibles, donated by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Starr, of the Eighth Church, for the new pavilion.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. JOHN MILTON DODSON,
Chairman Pro Tem.

REPORT OF VISITING AND DEVOTIONAL COMMITTEE

---

It is a pleasure and satisfaction to report about fifteen hundred visits by the ladies, most cordially received by the patients, and the deficit caused by illness on the committee.

The Presbyterian Hospital, with its far-reaching hands of help, is one of the greatest missionary fields connected with the Presbyterian Church.

In this work of coming near the people, we learn what a difference our institution, and the men and women working in and through it, makes in the lives of many disheartened and discouraged souls.

The house was very pretty in its holiday dress, especially the Children's Ward. The little folks seemed bright and happy in spite of limitations.

The beautiful tree was the gift of the Third Church. The stock generously donated in 1907 by Mr. Talbot of Dennison & Co. was greatly augmented by fifty rolls of red crepe paper and a ream of white tissue paper.

Our thanks are again due Bassett & Washburne of Hinsdale, who have been most generous and faithful in their donations of flowers during the year. Her garden she planted and cultivated, bringing the results of her society of shut-in members as in the summer months of luxuriant growth.

There have been held two meetings; at the second, March 29, Mrs. A. A. Lincoln of Hinsdale was made chairman.

Mrs. Lincoln has only missed five of the weekly meetings through the year. Her garden she planted and cultivated, bringing the results of her thoughtful work to the sick, in whom she is ever interested. I feel no regret in leaving the work with so capable, energetic and executive a leader.

The new building, attractive and pleasant to look upon, with its snowy beds, suggests rest and comfort; its dainty rooms seem veritable havens of peace; its solariums and roof garden speak of sunshine and balmy breezes, and although the vision of sorrow and suffering confronts one in every room the angels of hope and returning health are there also to mitigate the sadness which necessarily pervades an institution like this.

Hitherto I have urged, and still do, an increased effort on the part of the members to do more active work, believing most firmly that, "As ye sow, so also shall ye reap."

The field is large, the seed is countless; we have but to make the effort, and the results will equal this wonderful building we have just completed.

Respectfully submitted,

WILOMENE T. WHITE,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE FOR THE YEAR ENDING APRIL 5, 1909

Number of members, 741. Total amount received, $1,493. Thirty-six churches have been communicated with. Eighteen churches have increased their gifts, eight churches have decreased their donations, four new churches have contributed, while six churches sent no response.

During the year just closed an advance of $401.25 has been made over the total sum subscribed in 1908. This increase is due in large part to a special notice sent out under the name of the Associate Membership Committee, telling of the added needs of our Hospital owing to the opening of the new pavilion. This idea was conceived and the notice composed by Mrs. Joseph Matteson, who was always a most interested and active member of the committee. Therefore, if by this means extra financial aid has come to our Hospital, much of the credit should be hers. Many already know of her untiring efforts in forwarding the work of this great institution, but the Associate Membership Committee is desirous that all should hear of her splendid work done through this Committee, she having been on the original Committee and one of its first chairmen, and that in her death the Committee feels it has lost one of its most faithful and devoted members. To all the Treasurers who have so diligently labored to extend the knowledge of the needs of this Hospital and to awaken increased interest in its work, the Committee wishes to express its gratitude for their earnest coöperation. We are sure that the churches of this city and vicinity have not reached, however, the high mark to which they should aspire for the support of this noble institution, and we would urge upon all the friends of suffering humanity to join us in this effort to increase our gifts until no sufferer shall ever be turned from our doors.

Respectfully submitted,
AMELIA OWSLEY CRAIG,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE OF THE LADIES' AID SOCIETY OF THE PRESBY- TERIAN HOSPITAL FOR THE YEAR ENDING APRIL 5, 1909

This committee has planned and prepared work for three sewing and social gatherings following the business meetings in May and October of 1908, and February of 1909. From forty to fifty ladies have remained for the box luncheon, sewing and to become acquainted, the latter an important factor when we consider that all the members of the Board are interested in the same object—the advancement of the interests and improvement of the work of the Hospital.

At the May meeting 18 pairs of curtains were made, 10 napkins hemmed, 10 dozen napkins cut and hem folded, 2 Turkish towels hemmed, 148 napkins marked, 50 towels marked.

At the October meeting 41 children's shirts were made and 34 sheets hemmed.

At the February meeting 29 pairs of curtains for the new Pavilion were made.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. A. CHILDS.

MRS. F. W. LEACH.

MRS. ROBERT OWENS.

MRS. JOSEPH MATTESON.
